

58.

The only reward I ever wished on my retirement was to carry with me nothing like a disapprobation of the public.

59-

If some termination of the service of the chief magistrate be not fixed by the Constitution, his office will become for life.

60.

The main objects of all science are the freedom and happiness of man.

61.

To be really useful we must keep pace with the state of society and not dishearten if by attempts at what its population, means, or occupations will fail in attempting.

62.

The information of the people at large can alone make them the safe, as they are the sole, depository of our religious and political freedom.

63-

There are two subjects which I shall claim a right to further as long as I have breath, the public education and the subdivision of the counties into wards (townships). I consider the continuance of Republican government as absolutely hanging on these two hooks.

64.

A Republican government is slow to move, yet when once in motion its momentum becomes irresistible.

65-

The equal rights of man and the happiness of every individual are the only legitimate objects of government.

66.

We may still believe with security that the great body of American people must for ages yet be substantially Republican.
